EDUCATE ADVOCATE CULTIVATE

Ontario's Authority for Home Inspectors – The Law Since 1994

ABOUT OAHI

Through education and advocacy the Ontario Association of Home Inspectors cultivates a thriving home inspection industry based on the highest standards of professional development and ethical standards.

In doing so, OAHI cultivates the 'gold standard' for home inspectors among consumers and the government.

OAHI is the only provincially recognized body of home inspectors by The Ontario Association of Home Inspectors Act, 1994. OAHI is a not-for-profit association.

EDUCATION

OAHI believes educated home inspectors are better home inspectors so it provides regular training opportunities.

The OAHI education process is mandatory, rigorous and produces the best home inspectors.

PROMOTION

OAHI's "Find an Inspector" portal helps clients find you. In addition, OAHI has print and online marketing materials and media contacts. Media approach OAHI when looking to quote a home inspector.

NETWORKING

OAHI's online meeting groups, the education conference, workshops, and courses are great opportunities for networking and learning.

ADVOCACY

OAHI advocates for you with corporations, the provincial government and industry partners.

MENTORSHIP

You are not alone. OAHI's more experienced home inspectors can provide mentoring opportunities.

COMMUNICATION

Through regular emails, online channels, and the Members Forum, OAHI keeps you up to date on the industry.

COMMITTEE INVOLVEMENT

OAHI has several committees. Your time, energy, and experience will contribute to the advancement of the home inspection industry. Your volunteerism is appreciated and recognized.

CACHET

"I think it lends more credibility with clients and Realtors to be a part of such a well-known and respected association such as OAHI."

"No other professional group knows more about that subject matter than we do."

HISTORY

OAHI was established in 1986 and the R.H.I. designation was established in 1994 under Bill Pr158 making OAHI the oldest and most recognized home inspection association in Ontario.
